A Newsletter Designed to Educate and Inform

The RGH Report List of Must See/Do Destinations in Phoenix Area:

1. Boyce Thompson Arboretum. Best collections of desert plants...also high trails (see picture at right) Fifty miles East and well worth the drive.
2. South Mt. and Superstition Mt. Trails. Flowers in March and April.
3. Lost Dutchman State Park and local mining village.
4. Heard Museum of Native American Art/Culture.
5. Heard Museum Native American Silver Sale in March.
6. Compass Restaurant atop the Hyatt Hotel. Go at Sunset for the best view.
7. Camelback Mt. If you are able, walk at least a few hundred yards up the mountain, to view Phoenix. Jill and I hiked to the top.
8. Cave Creek for shopping and to view beautiful homes amidst boulders and perched on the side of mountains.
9. Walk through the ASU Campus on Mill Street.
10. Visit some quaint area towns: Jerome, Wickenburg and Prescott.

Note: I did not mention any golf courses although there are many beautiful ones.

Note 2: Jill can go back to work on February 1. She is happy and we congratulate her on her struggle to overcome her stroke.

Last Summer, I decided to hook our two bikes together, side-by-side, so Ruth and I could ride the hills around our home more safely. Ruth hated it. This Granny Bike Video shows our first ride. There is also a story entitled Granny Bike Saga on my web site.

From A to Z.... from AZ

1. When a sentence sounds just as stupid when you read it forwards as it does when you read it backwards it's called a Sarah Palindrome.
2. Subscriber Ben Bassham complains that The RGH Report doesn't have cross word puzzles.
3. A shoutout to Joan and Ron Burbick who are recovering from surgeries. Jane Fender is better too.

4. Hiked Gilbert Riparian Park... which preserves AZ Ecology and Wildlife...amazing place. Harold (above) got an assist.
