A. When Bucket Lists were being discussed recently, Ruth said that she didn't have a Bucket List, but rather a Non-Bucket List! She said she: 1. will never hike to the top of Camelback; 2. never swim across East Twin Lake; 3. never write a novel; never wear 6 inch heels; never travel to Antarctica; and, never own another convertible! She said the list is incomplete and will she will be adding other items later.

Orville Turns Five! Is Admired by All!!

Orville Celebrated his fifth birthday with friends from AZ, MI, OH, MT, CA and Canada. Part of the festivities included telling "dog stories" and Roger Saylor won the coveted "Orville Award" by telling about the time his friend purchased a $600 hunting dog so he could have a better hunting dog than Roger's. On the first day of hunting, the friend released his new dog and it took off, never to be seen again! Honorable mention went to our Dan who told about getting lost in Superstition Mt. with Krystal and their three dogs (Yes, three!) and being rescued after ten hours (one of the dogs had been injured) in the middle of the night by a rescue squad. Deborah told a story that wasn't very interesting! Sorta like Susie!

Looking Back. Recently, my brother-in law, Carl Peters, died at the age of ninety-five. As I reminisced about the impact his life has had on others, I realized he was one of a few people who had known me all of my life. I believe only my sister, Alice, and my cousin, Marilyn Russell, now fit into that category...others who were alive when I was born and now know me, didn't know me until later. When you have some time, think about the folks in your life who have known you since the day you were born! It is a fun exercise!
